BODY TO LIE IN STATE

It Will Be Taken to the City Hall This Morning.

SORROWFUL EXPOSITION CLOSING.

Stricken Family, a Prayerand the End.

CHICAGO, 1LL, October 30,-All was chicago, ill... October 30.—All was shrouded in gloom and quiet in and about the quaint old Harrison homestead on Ashland boulevard to-day. The Sunday crowds about the palings were absent, and only a few pedestrians stopped as they passed to gaze awe-struck at the closely-drawn curtains and the black badge of mourning at the portal. But one policeman was on duty at the outer gate, and he had only to tell all inquirers that the family desired uninterrupted quiet and that the body would be conveyed to the City Hall there to remain in state for twenty-four hours. Two more uniformed officers quietly patrolled the block, but they had little to do. They was passed stopped but a moment to converse in undertones about the awful calamity and then passed on.

CALLERS FEW.

Callers were very few, as all condolences had been offered Saturday evening and yesterday, and only an occasional messenger-boy with a note or telegram of sympathy disturbed the silent bell. The drivers of carriages and vehicles that passed involuntarily brought their horses to a walk, and the quiet of an idle thoroughfare prevailed in the neighborhood. All of the curtains were tightly drawn save those in the parlor to the right.

One of the earliest callers was the family physician, and he was closely followed by undertaker C. H. Jordan, who saw that the details of preparing the remains for the casket were properly attended to. The body will be placed in the casket to-morrow just before it is conveyed to the City Hall.

AT THE FAIR.

solemn stillness, an unparalleled tribute to the memory of Chicago's Mayor. One grand symphony of sympathy for the loss of a loving father, an flustrious, faithful citizen, and the chosen chief of a million and a half of people.

Even the noisy Midway Plaisance was quieter than usual. The patrons of the street seemed to share in the general sorrow. In the American offices the chief men of the fair returned to their desks with saddened hearts, and a gloom hung over all.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY.

At 11 o'clock the committee of twelve which was chosen to draft resolutions which was chosen to draft resolutions which were read to the people in Festival Hall met in President Higgin-botham's office. They were President Potter Palmer, R. L. Saundera, G. V. Massey, A. H. Mitchell, of the National Commission: President Higginbotham, Lynnan J. Gage, Edwin Walker, F. W. Peck, Robert A. Walker, G. R. Davis, of the Board of Directors.

The resolutions expressed at some length and in the most sympathetic language at the committee's command the general sorrow, and delivered a eulogy upon the dead Mayor. One set of the resolutions were presented by President Higginbotham on behalf of the Board of Directors, and another by Commissioner Massey, of Delawars, for the National Committee.

President Palmer then formally an-nounced that in compliance with the set of Congress the exposition was officially gast had told him he lived at 609 Perry street.

According to the post-mortem examina-tion, results of which were submitted to the jury, five bullet wounds made by four bullets were found in the Mayor's body. Three balls remained in the body. One lodged in the muscles of the back. An-other passed through the liver and was found in the bowels. The third struck near the shoulder and ranging downward lodged under the skin.

The jury retired a few minutes and, re-lodged under the skin.

The jury retired a few minutes and returned its verdict.

On the verdict a formal death-certificate was issued. The finding of the jury was also the basis of a mittimus as for the detention of Prendergast.

In the course of the inquest Deputy-Coroner Kelly asked Prendergast if he had a statement to make, but the prisoner refused to speak.

BALTIMORE, MD., October 30.—The students and faculty of Rock Hill College, this State, came to-day to Calvert Hall. In this city, and uniting with the students and faculty of the latter institution of learning, gave a grand reception to Cardinal Gibbons, in manifestation of their joy that his Eminence had rounded out twenty-five years of his episcopate in great and glorious work for his church and country. A choir of 200 voices and the orchestras of college and hall gave a very fine musical treat, and a jubilee address was read by Mr. Richard J. Davis (1850, of Norfolk, Va. The Cardinal's response was most felicitous, and he was heartily applauded by the students, professors, laymen, and priests present-these latter all being graduates of the two institutions.

Mr. Gould humored him until he saw 4 chance to telephone to the nearest station-house. An officer then soon appeared, and took the crank away. He gave his name as Mongolia Andrews, a telegraph operator.

A dispatch from Kansas City says Andrews was employed in the Western Union office in that city, and that he obtained leave of absence two weeks ago to visit his old home, in West Virginia. He has a wife and two children in Kansas City. Andrews was not popular with his fellow-operators or associates, as he was too much inclined to argue subjects upon which he was none too well informed. At one time religion was his hobby, and he was a member of a church at Westport, Of late he had been advocating the objects of the American Protective Association.

While he was regarded as ignorant and eccentric, none of his associates seem to have considered him dangerous.

neers in the Hands of the Mouse

(From Our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., October 30,-The ons have been placed quietly in the hands of the members of the House Com-mittee by the Chief of Engineers, and oon that committee will be able to get o work. The recommendations for the leading Virginia and North Carolina proects are as follows, the amounts given eing either what the corps thinks will be required to complete existing works, on that could be profitably spent next year: THE JAMEN.

THE JAMES.

James River, for completion, $1,256,070; amount recommended for next year's work, $400,000. The work has progressed satisfactorily for the year, the most extensive part being near Richmond, and fine results can be obtained from liberal appropriations. Up to June 30, 1832, the amount expended on James river was $1,250,408.

York there to complete $15,000.

Si, 20, 408.

York river, to complete, $115,000; for next year, $100,000. Mattaponi river, to complete, $48,800; for next year, $10,000. Pamunkey river, $7,000; to complete next year. Rappabannock river, to complete, $144,000; for next year, $25,000. Norfolk harbor, to complete, $307,744; for next year, $200,000.

NORFOLK HARBOR.

Norfolk harbor, between Lambert's Point and Port Norfolk, to complete, $105,-009. Nansemond river, to complete, $122,-500; for next year, $50,000. Apportant viver, to complete, $18,000, for next year, $10,000. Nothing further is recommended for Onancock harbor.

Cape Charles City, harbor and approaches, to complete existing project, $10,000.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Inland water route, Norfolk to Albe-narie Sound, to complete, $40,657; for next ear that amount recommended. Beaufort Harbor, to complete, $13,000. Beaufort Harbor, to complete, $33,000.
Cape Fear river, to complete, $30,000; for next year, $10,000. Cape fear above Wilmington, to complete, $150,750; for next year, $40,000. Cape Fear below Wilmington, to complete to a depth of twenty, feet, $1,430,000; for next year, $400,000.

New river, $7,000, to complete.
Inland water-way between Newberne and Beaufort, to complete, $57,000; inland water-way between Beaufort and New River, to complete, $10,000; inland water-way between New Fliver and Swansboro's, to complete, $38,000.

THE LONG BRIDGE. General Casey, Chief of Engineers, also recommends in his annual report that over $500,000 be expended next year on the further improvement of the Potomariver, and strongly urges that the present Long bridge across that river between Washington and the Virginia side be replaced by a more modern structure. placed by a more modern structure.

The present bridge is now used by the Pennsylvania, the Richmond and Danville, and the Chesapeake and Ohio rullivaeds, although it is owned by the first and the Marshall and Tucker.

(Special telegram to the Dispatch.)

STAUNTON, VA., October 30.—Hon.

James Marshall, in his old home, at Mount Solon, to-night addressed a splendid audience of 200 aggressive Democrats. He made a splendid impression, and solid-lifed the columns of O'Ferrall and Echols.

Mr. Marshall and Mr. H. St. George Tucker leave for Washington to-night in response to a telegram from Speaker Crisp. They will return Wednesday, and will speak at various points in the county around a large for the special country and the sp came back, and I went to the door and let him in.

"Mr. Harrison was sitting in the second room to the front. I told him there was a man in the hall who wanted to see him, and I left the man in the hall and went to the kitchen Just as I got in the kitchen I heard several shots fired and then I ran out from the kitchen to where I had left Mr. Harrison and the man. I saw the unknown man running out of the door. Mr. Harrison staggered into the second room and out of the door to the hall, where he fell."

"Bo you see the man who called?" asked Deputy Kelly.

The witness hesitated and the Coroner was more specific. Fair city's sorrow came the closing of the World's Columbian Exposition this day,
